KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Effective September 8, please welcome Linda Brimmer as Executive Director of the Kiwanis International Foundation (KIF). Linda comes to the Kiwanis International Foundation from the position of vice president/chief operating officer of the Goodwill Industries Foundation of Central Indiana. The Goodwill Foundation is affiliated with Goodwill Industries of Central Indiana and currently has a corpus of more than $17 million. Goodwill Industries of Central Indiana is one of the five largest and most successful Goodwill organizations in the world.

Prior to joining Goodwill, Linda served as director of development and communications for the internationally renowned Center on Philanthropy at Indiana University. Significant gifts and expectancies during her tenure at the Center on Philanthropy included a $6.5 million operating grant renewal by the Lilly Endowment, $3 million leadership grant from the Kellogg Foundation and $10 million bequest from Ruth Lilly.

Linda has also been with the International Honor Society of Nursing, Sigma Theta Tau, where she served as chief fundraising officer. She was recruited to the scholarly nursing organization to direct the Campaign for the Center for Nursing Scholarship, the first national capital campaign undertaken by a nursing organization.

Earlier in her career, Linda also served as a senior associate of The Oram Group, a historic New York City-based fundraising consulting firm, and as manager of Membership & Development of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce.

Linda has an MBA from Indiana University and a BA from Southeastern Louisiana University. She is a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE), and was honored with the 2000 Fundraising Professional Award by the Association of Fundraising Professionals-Indiana Chapter. She was cited in Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges, Outstanding Young Women of America, and elected president of The Thirteen Club Honor Society at Southeastern Louisiana University.

Linda and Blair, her husband, reside in Zionsville, Indiana.
